

Konrad Korabiewski

"Stateless"

Polish-born, Danish-based Konrad Korabiewski started experimenting with sound at a young age, and has, for the last 15 years or so (he's 30 now), worked with a plethora of audiovisual-related projects, while also hosting a radio show, DJing at clubs, and remixing such prominent Danish bands as Under Byen and Armstrong.

Stateless, Korabiewski's full length debut, is itself a selection of recordings done between 1998 and 2008. And yet, the resulting album is a surprisingly flawless opus.

The album's title signifies Korabiewski's own sense of "disbelonging", and, stylistically, Stateless does - rightfully so - combine moody Eastern European lo-fi-meets-hi-fi dance music with Scandinavian idiosyncrasies. Pixie-dust beats, zany synths and warped broadcasts from the Planet Lodz, forming avantgarde electronic pop music pieces for techno-happy melody fiends and interstellar noise/drone buffs alike.

In addition to eight such tracks (plus a curious interlude), the handsomely packaged CD contains a remix by none other than German lap-pop superstar Schneider TM. Furthermore, a video, "Slowloop", can be found on the disc (viewable on any computer with a CD drive.)

In the last few years, Korabiewski has performed at numerous Scandinavian alternative rock/electronica festivals, notably Norberg, Radar, Phono, Forma Nova and Recession. A mini tour of Poland is scheduled for April. The future is technicoloured.

Stateless is the third release from d'Oorhinge l'Orange Recordings, a part of the tiny umbrella organization / distribution company The BSBTA Label Group (with roots in the mostly obscure Bloated Sasquatch Beer Theatre Audio label, which issued over 100 audio items between 2000 and 2006.)

The d'Oorhinge l'Orange discography contains releases from Mechanical Bird and cryptic scenery, while the future will bring the music of Land Equivalents, Manipulator Alligator, BJ Panda Bear et le Lolicocks and Prester to your ears.
